Best way to sit on your ass for charity

Join Reel Causes, which is more than 1,400 Vancouver film lovers who use their purchasing power to help groups ranging from Amnesty International to the Greater Vancouver Food Bank. The Vancity Theatre offers Reel Causes a chance to screen one film a month, with the box-office proceeds going to a charity of the group's choice. And the theatre sells tons of popcorn and other treats because Reel Causes has more than enough members to fill its seats.
